The arrangement of the exhibits was excellent and as one entered the auditorium, the beauty of the many flowers and arrangements of vegetables and canned fruits and berries immediately held his attention.

KINGS DAUGHTERS TO OBSERVE NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY

Open House to Be Held At Hospital May 12th From 2 to 5—Shower To Be Given at Same Time

May 12th, is designated as National Hospital Day. This day will be observed in Bay St. Louis, and the King's Daughters and Sons Hospital will have open house from 2:00 o'clock to 5:00 o'clock P. M. A shower will be given for the hospital at this time.

Each year it has been customary to give a shower for the benefit of the hospital. We, in Hancock County, should appreciate the work being done at our small hospital. It is hard for the average person to visualize the amount of charity patients who receive treatment here, and it is hard for the King's Daughters to carry on this noble work without some help.

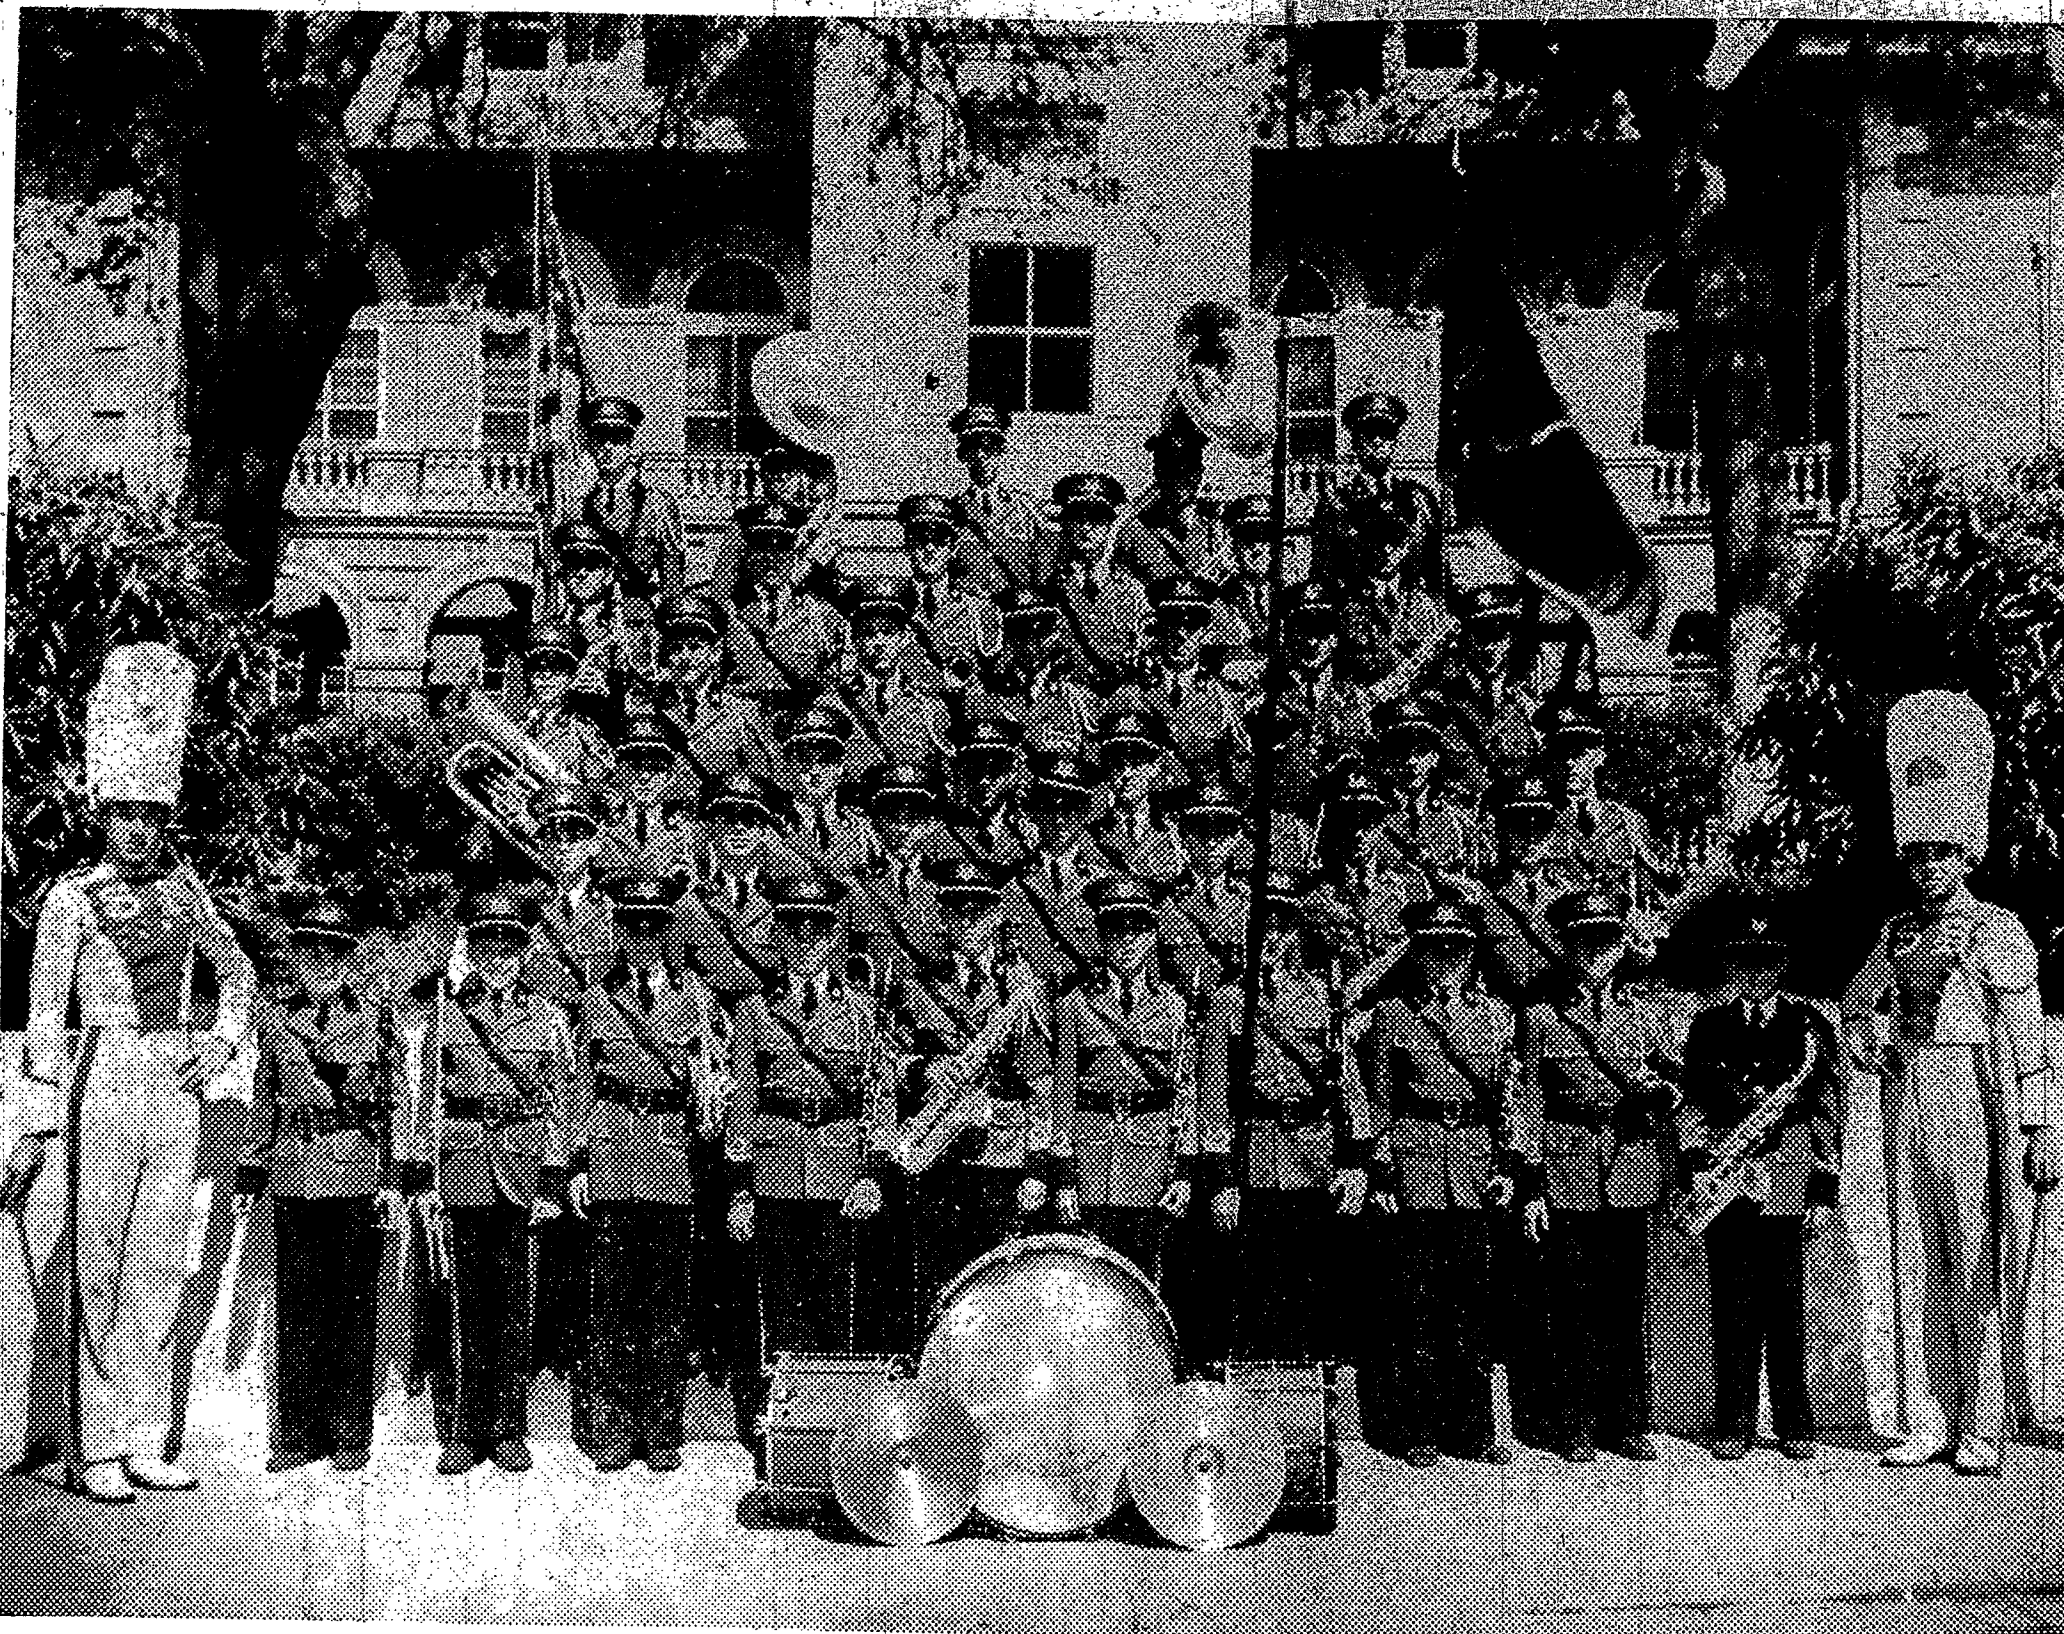

The means of financing the hospital is derived entirely from donations, with the exception of the small State appropriation and the money received from patients who are able to pay, which is rather negligible. The Hospital Board is not in a position to purchase all of the necessities, such as, sheets, towels, bedspreads, pillow cases, wash clothes, dishes and many other items that are used about the hospital.

We are appealing to the people of Hancock County to answer the call of the King's Daughters and on May 12th, give them a shower that will really be worth while. Help them to carry on the good work that they are doing.

If you are not familiar with the problems with which they are confronted and do not know the amount of charity work that is being done, let us suggest that you call at the hospital and we are sure that the Superintendent will be happy to acquaint you with the facts as they actually exist.

The hospital is a necessity and is becoming much more so each day. Do not forget the King's Daughters Hospital at Bay St. Louis. We urge you to visit the hospital on that day between the hours of 2:00 o'clock and 5:00 o'clock P. M.

CONGRESSMAN COLMER COMPLIMENTED BY ADMIRAL E. S. LAND

Admiral Emory S. Land, Chairman of the United States Maritime Commission, paid a very high compliment to Congressman W. M. Colmer of this Congressional District, commenting on a recent letter from Congressman Colmer to the employees of the Ingalls Ship Building Corporation at Pascagoula, Mississippi.

We quote from a part of the letter from Admiral Land to Mr. Colmer:

"In days of crisis, sometimes the very best tonic for apathy and complacency is to tell the stark, naked truth about conditions as they really exist. I feel that the letter you addressed to the 3700 workers of the Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation at Pascagoula does exactly that, and I regard it as a distinct and substantial contribution to the war effort."

Mr. Colmer appealed to the shipyard workers, stating the urgent need for more ships to carry war supplies to American soldiers and Allies fighting on foreign soil, and pointing out that the extra effort of every workman would help speed victory and save soldiers' lives.

Admiral Land, in his letter to Mr. Colmer, stated that in days of crisis, sometimes, the very best tonic for apathy and complacency, is to tell the stark naked truth about conditions as they really exist.

If Admiral Land knew Bill Colmer as we know him, he would know that that is one of his greatest attributes. Congressman Colmer is sincere and will give, or attempt to give, to his constituents, true facts as they really exist, even if these facts do him harm, instead of good, politically. That, in our opinion, is one of the things that makes Mr. Colmer so popular with the people of his District, and it is one thing that so few men in political office will ever do.

UNITED CHINA RELIEF CAMPAIGN

Have you contributed to the United China Relief Campaign? If not you have until May 9 to do so.

Returns are coming in rapidly but some one may have been overlooked but if you have not been called upon to give don't let that keep you from contributing to this cause. There is so much to be said as to why you should give but you know by papers and magazine articles just what these gallant people have suffered and are still suffering so don't wait to see whether you can afford it but just give.

Hancock County must reach its quota of $300.00. But it can't without your help.

Send or give your contribution to the county treasurer, Mrs. M. A. Phillips, 210 S. Beach or leave it at the Hancock County Library. But don't fail to make the contribution. Miss May H. Edwards is County Chairman.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY MAY QUEEN

Festival Held Sunday, May 3rd—Miss Marie Louise Schayot, Lovely Queen

In a garden in which there were myriads of roses, Miss Marie Louise Schayot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schayot of Phoenix, La., a boarding student at St. Joseph Academy who nine years ago was a page in the May Festival's court and who has been a member of each succeeding court since, was crowned queen of the May and reigned over a beautiful court in the annual May festival held in the auditorium of St. Joseph Academy on Sunday, May 3rd.

Miss Schayot's king was her young uncle, Mr. Emile Schayot of New Orleans.

The maid of honor was Miss Margie Greene, day student of Lakeshore, and her duke of honor, Arthur Perez, student at St. Stanislaus College.

Miss Schayot was a picture of girlish loveliness in a white net gown made very full with tight-fitting bodice with drop shoulders edged in net ruffling on which were silver sequins. On her head, she wore a crown of brilliant and from her shoulders was a handsome mantle of white satin lined in silver.

To complete her queenly splendor, Miss Schayot carried a sceptre of white orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Greene, was extremely pretty in a gown of sheer white organdy trimmed in dainty ruffles and carrying a large arm bouquet of pink rosebuds.

The heralds were Carol Ann Betzer and Betty Jane Vassalli; the crown bearer was little Noleen Ladner; train bearers were June Breath, Carol Capdepon and Gaynell Favre; junior maid and duke to the queen and king, Karen Kergosien and Gerry Kiefer.

Completing the rest of the court were the maids and dukes, the girls all wearing dainty evening dresses in different pastel shades and the dukes in white suits, the maids carrying large baskets filled with spring flowers.

The following were the maids and dukes: Nathalie Buehler and Lucien Kidd; Gladys Capdepon and J. T. Prosser; Elaine Lamer and Joseph Colson; Rosalie Ambler and Oscar Pacheco; Jackie Cuevas and George Claire; Betty Barker and Billy Waters; Eleanor Brewer and Joseph Cimo; Dorothy Besancon and Clat-

The Hancock County Rationing Board, with the assistance of the school authorities in Hancock County, have completed the registration of individuals and the issuance of War Ration Books.

It may be well at this time to call attention of the people of Hancock County to some of the regulations that apply to the use of the War Ration Book and to the use of sugar that is now owned by the individuals throughout the county. For example—if a person should have 100 lbs. of sugar on hand and family of ten, he would be entitled to have a surplus of 20 lbs. of sugar without detaching any of the stamps from his War Ration Book. If he should have only 20 lbs. of sugar on hand at the time of registration, he would be entitled to purchase 1 lb. of sugar for each of the first four stamps in each book to be used for the period from May 5th to June 25th, which is practically a two month period. However, if he should have above the 20 lbs. of sugar on hand at the time, he could not purchase sugar until the additional amount of sugar above 20 lbs. had been consumed, it would also be necessary that sufficient stamps to cover the additional 80 lbs. of sugar be detached, and it would be impossible for him to purchase sugar until the period of time covered by the detached stamps had expired.

The point that we are trying to bring out, is that even if you have a surplus of sugar on hand, if you have reported this fact, you still should not use your surplus sugar in any other manner than you would if it had been purchased with War Ration Stamps, because, if you do, you are going to find yourself in the position of not being able to buy sugar until such time as the remaining stamps in your book can be used. The amount of sugar you have on hand is applied on your quota, in the same manner as if you had no sugar at all.

Do not lose sight of the fact that your stamps are numbered and that these numbered stamps can only be used during stated periods. For instance, Stamp No. 1 must be used between the dates of May 5th and May 16th, inclusive. Stamp No. 2 must be used between the dates of May 17th and May 30th, inclusive. Stamp No. 3 must be used between May 31st to June 13th. Stamp No. 4 must be used between June 14th to June 25th. You cannot use Stamp No. 4 at the present time. The only stamp that you can use up until May 15th, is Stamp No. 1, so you can readily see that if the stamps are detached from your book to cover the amount of surplus sugar that you have on hand, it will be impossible for you to make a purchase of sugar until such time as the date arrives on which your stamp can be used.

Another important feature that should not be overlooked, is the care of your War Ration Books. We are quoting the paragraph from the rules and regulations as set out by the office of the Price Administrator for the rationing of foods and food products. May we suggest that you take time enough to read this paragraph, which we quote in full:

Destroyed, Multitlated, or Stolen Certificates, Stamps and War Ration Books: (a) A Certificate that is torn or mutilated shall be valid only if more than one-half thereof remains legible and such remaining portion clearly evidences the date of the (Continued on page 3)

Mother

THERE are many fine things in life that we lose—the dreams of our childhood, the illusions of our youth, the hopes of our old age; but there is one thing that remains with us through thick and thin, and that is, the love we have for our mother. Perhaps there is a little neglect at times, but the deeps remain.

And, there is good reason that such a love should be with each of us. Who watched over our baby steps? Who hovered over our bed when we were sick? Who took up for us, and believed in us when erring nature led our steps astray? We know these things, but it takes the commemoration of Mother's Day to recall them to our minds, or when she has gone on to her reward.

Now is the time to show your love and appreciation. Don't wait till too late, and have vain regrets in the days to come. Just a word of appreciation and love, a little card or telegram, or better yet, a letter. Something personal is better than the richest presents. Don't let the day pass unnoticed.

If God has taken her to her reward, feel that she still watches over you, that you owe to her as great a devotion as when she lived.

"The noblest thoughts my soul can claim.
The holiest words my tongue can frame,
Unworthy are to praise the name,
More sacred than all other."

An infant when her love first came;
A man, I find it just the same;
Reverently I breathe her name—
The blessed name of "Mother."

AXIS OFFICIALS DISCLOSE DOUBTS

THE Japanese, despite victories to date, are told by officials to prepare for bombing attacks, to expect a long war and not to underestimate the fighting power of England and the United States.

Recently, a spokesman for the Japanese Imperial Headquarters called upon the Japanese people to stand firm and while predicting American counter-attacks against Japan, sought comfort in the declaration that the Axis powers, Germany and Italy, were now fully prepared to make powerful offensive drives against the United States as well as against Great Britain.

There seems to be a prevalent tendency on the part of Axis officials to seek comfort by bragging about the accomplishments of their partners in crime. Japan regards Hitler's "victories" in Russia with delight and Hitler and Mussolini are not without pride in what they call Japan's feats in the South Pacific.

This psychological trait may be significant. Certainly, Japan is aware that the war is just getting underway and Germany knows that victory is not in sight. It is natural for the leaders of these nations, somewhat worried about the outcome of their struggle, to strengthen their people for bad news to come by over-emphasizing the successes of their allies.

The new which comes from Italy is meager and Benito Mussolini is rarely heard from. In fact, Italy seems to be the forgotten nation of this war, contemptuously overlooked by her enemies.

Every child should observe Mother's Day without letting it stand for a whole year.

We know individuals who have never smelled gun-powder ready to plan the entire strategy of the war.

You get close to the front lines when you buy a War Bond instead of spending the money for something you have long wanted.

Since we have to reduce our standard of living to fight an all-out war, we Americans might as well admit it was too high.

Isolationists Fish and Tinkham announce their retirement, thus setting a commendable example for Congressmen who opposed defense measures.

HANCOCK COUNTY WAR BOND QUOTA

HANCOCK County's quota for the month of May for war bonds has been set at $16,000.00. The people of Hancock County have gone over the top in every drive that has ever been put on.

Apparently it has not been necessary in the past five months to even suggest to anyone that they should purchase war bonds. The sale of bonds through the local post office at Bay St. Louis for the months of December, January, February, March and April, amounted to $82,700.00. This is an average of $16,540.00, or $540.00 per month above the quota that has been allotted to Hancock County.

These figures do not include the amount of bonds of series F and G that are sold by the banks to corporations and business institutions. These figures are not available at the present time.

Mr. Leo G. Ford, post master at Bay St. Louis, advises us that, not a single bond has been redeemed through his office, and that only $22.50 of defense stamps have been redeemed. This, we believe, is an enviable record.

The Government is asking that each individual purchase bonds in an amount equal to 10 percent of their income. This is not too much. It is important that every community meet its quota in order that this Government might have ample funds to purchase the necessary equipment to place in the hands of our boys who are making every sacrifice for our lives and our freedom.

It is our firm belief that the people of Hancock County are going to continue to respond in the purchase of war bonds, even more readily than they have in the past.

OUR DAIRYING INTEREST

DAIRY Farmers increased the commercial output of their herds by nearly six billion pounds during 1941, and with increased prices, especially in the last half of the year, enjoyed a cash income from milk, cream and homemade butter of $1,396,837,000.00.

The Bureau of Agricultural Economics pointed out that this is better than the previous 'best year' of 1929, by some $58,000,000.00 and fully twenty-five percent above the 1940 figure. In addition, milk utilized for dairy products consumed on farms where produced, was valued at $401,843,000.00.

These figures indicate the growing importance of dairying in agriculture. In fact, dairy products represent the largest single source of revenue of American farmers.

Five years ago the farmers of Hancock County did not feel that they could make a living, dairying. It was started on a small scale in this county, and today we have sixty-six dairy herds, numbering some 3,000 cows. The farmers of Hancock County who have gone into the dairy business, are making a comfortable living, and in order to assure ourselves of this, it would be well for anyone who might be interested in the rural section of our county to make a tour through this area and talk to the men engaged in dairying and see what a difference has come over this particular area within the past five years. People are satisfied and contented, their living conditions have improved, and even though a man may not be able to show you a big bank roll, he can probably show you a well kept herd of dairy cattle that are paid for and which has furnished him his livelihood for the past few years.

It is our belief that dairying should be encouraged in this county. Much of the rural section of the county can be used for cattle grazing, and the people who are in a position to assist the farmers of Hancock County in the development of a paying business, should come forward and lend every assistance.

CHINESE AID

HANCOCK County's quota for the United China Relief Fund is $300.00. This is a comparatively small amount. If every person in Hancock County contributed 3 cents, we would exceed our quota.

It is impossible, of course, to expect every person to make a contribution. However, we believe that many people will contribute to this great cause, realizing that we owe a great debt to China for the valiant fight that they have put up against the Japanese for the past four and a half years.

In the war-torn areas of China the people are homeless and are greatly in need of the great services, skill and aid that can be given to them through the gifts of the American people. As far as war materials are concerned, our Government is furnishing to the Chinese all of the military aid that is possible, but the aid to the civilian population must come from the people of America. We should make these people feel that we appreciate the sacrifices that they have made and are making today.

Send in your contribution, regardless of how small it may be, to the chairman of the Hancock County United China Relief Committee.

NO TIME FOR BICKERING

TESTIFYING before a Congressional Committee, Hon. Thurmond Arnold, Assistant United States Attorney General, stated that a patent on a certain type screw was holding up production of fighting planes. He also stated before the Committee that he could present hundreds of similar cases.

If his statements are correct, we believe that the Committee should have him produce the necessary information concerning any cases that he may know, where patented materials are holding up the production of necessary equipment of war, and that the proper officials should take the necessary steps to remove this condition.

It is not the time for people to be bickering over the question of their patent rights, nor the amount of money that they should receive for the manufacture of these products.

We believe that everyone should feel that whatever he has that may assist in the winning of this war, he should gladly give to his Government, for what good will come to him in the event the war is not won.

Hancock County Men in "The Sea"

The Sea Coast ECHO wishes to advise the parents or relatives of any of these men that all gladly mail a copy of the paper to the boys if their address is given to the office. The newspaper will bring direct to the men away from home news of what the folks back home are doing and we hope this will be one which they may enjoy.

The following list of names was supplied The ECHO should any service man's name be omitted it would be appreciated if it would be sent in.

Constitutional Amendments

TWO constitutional amendments were proposed by the recent session of the legislature and they will be voted on by the people in November of this year: One proposes to amend section 211 so as to authorize the lease of 16th section school land located in municipalities for a period not exceeding 99 years, for a gross sum. The other amendment proposes a new section, or subsection, providing that the board of trustees for the higher institutions of learning shall be appointed for terms of four, six and twelve years, one-third of the members to be appointed for each four-year term, so that there will always be at least eight hold-over members, and no one governor will ever have the appointment of more than one-third of the members, unless to fill vacancies created by death or other causes.

Crude Oil Tax

Taxable sales of crude oil produced in Mississippi in 1941 totaled $12,946,944 and for January, 1942 the total was $2,221,913 while February went up to $2,352,984. The tax revenue received by the state from oil production in 1941 was $258,938.88, and for the first two months of 1942 the sum of $91,497.94.

Flora Blue Prints

Marion Joaquin Lorente was arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, on a charge of having in his possession certain blue prints of the Mississippi Ordnance Plant at Flora. He was released on bond of $5,000, pending a grand jury hearing in Jackson in May.

Substitute for Sugar

Coupons or stamps for the purchase of sugar will be issued to families this week, each person being allowed one half pound per week, purchased on the stamp plan. It seems that sugar already on hand in the home will be charged against the stamp book at the rate of 1/4 pound per week and no more can be purchased until the supply on hand is used up on the weekly allowance plan. It has been suggested that many people will resort to the use of saccharine as a substitute for sugar. At present, prices 1,000 half grain tablets of saccharine can be bought for one dollar, and it will substitute for 35 pounds of sugar. It has no food value and is not fattening.

War Bond Drive—Over

The City of Jackson put on a special drive last week to sell an extra million dollars worth of War Bonds. The drive went over the top and the success of the movement was celebrated at the City Auditorium on Tuesday night by a songfest led by Lucy Moore, famous singer, who was in Jackson to assist in the drive. At 9 p. m. the large crowd at the auditorium heard the President over the radio and at the close of the speech stood up and sang The Star Spangled Banner, led by Miss Monroe. The drive resulted in the sale of more than a million dollars, the goal set for the "MacArthur Day" drive.

More Candidates

Two more candidates have filed their official announcements with the Secretary of State since the last report in this column—Sebe Dale, of Columbia, for circuit judge 15th district; R. E. Bennett of Meadville, circuit judge 6th district. Judge Bennett is running for re-election in the 6th district while in the 15th district Judge J. C. Shivers is the present incumbent.

Raking Around

Highway No. 7, between Oxford and Holly Springs, has been re-opened after being closed for 18 months, on account of raising the bridge and the levy across Tallahatchie river, back water from the Sardin dam making this necessary—Col. Merriwater, of the Charleston Sun, has moved his office and is now located in what is known as the Harrison Building on Main and Court Streets. The United States has under consideration a highway from the State of Washington northward to the seacoast of Alaska, a distance of 2,900 miles. The Federal Reserve Board estimates that approximately two billion dollars of U. S. money is being hoarded, and more than half of the amount by foreigners. The electric power production in the United States for the week ending in mid-April was 3,320,858,000 kilowatt-hours, an increase of 14 percent over the same week of 1941. This season is producing a bumper wheat crop and now a serious question is finding storage for the new crop since the elevators are already filled with the 630,000,000-bushel carry-over from last year. Good authority estimates that eye accidents in the year 1941 cost this country 9-500,000 man-power days of work, enough to build 17 destroyers. The Farm Credit Administration estimates that the mortgage debt on the farms of the United States is approximately $7,000,000,000.

SAINT STANISLAUS
DRUM MAJOR WINS

GEORGE COMEAUX

George Comeaux, the flashy drum major of the Saint Stanislaus Band, al figure in the science of baton again won first place in the baton twirling in the Mississippi State Band Contest held at Jackson last week. This was the third time that George entered the twirling contest in Jackson and each time he took top honors. Congratulations George.

George is a native of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. He attended Catholic High School up to the eighth grade. In 1938, he came to Saint Stanislaus and enrolled in the Freshman Class. George had already become quite efficient with a baton, so his band director gave him a place in the band at once. He received his first instructions in baton twirling from Steve Borne, then head drum major of the Catholic High School Band.

Enlistment in V-7 Of United States Naval Reserve To Continue

New Orleans, La., May 1, 1942—College graduates and college seniors may continue V-7 enlistment in the United States Naval Reserve after May 1, despite the earlier announcement that beginning about that date this class would be closed to all men attending college who have not enlisted in Class V-1, it was announced today by Commander F. C. Huntoon, Director of the Office of Naval Procurement of the Eighth Naval District.

In addition to seniors and college graduates admitted to Class V-7, all juniors who while sophomores were not eligible for Class V-1—service may enlist in V-7, as may juniors who became members of that class prior to April 15.

Class V-7 consists of men studying officer training in the Navy, who are commissioned upon the successful completion of their training period.

It was also announced that those previously eligible for V-1 training are not eligible for Class V-7.

Sophomores and freshmen attending college make up Class V-1. They may continue their college education at least until the end of their sophomore year, and in many cases stay in school until graduation.

Sugar Rationing Completed

Certificate, its weight value, and the name of the holder. A stamp that has been torn or mutilated is valid in the hands of the consumer only if more than one-half remains, undetached in the War Ration Book.

(b) If a Certificate or Stamp, held by a consumer, is lost, destroyed or stolen, or becomes invalid because of mutilation, the person entitled to such Stamp or Certificate may apply on OPA Form No. R-315 (Special Purpose Application) to and obtain from the Board a new Certificate. Like application may be made with regard to lost, stolen, or destroyed War Ration Books.

(c) The board shall remove from any replacement War Ration Books all Stamps that were removed from the lost, stolen, or destroyed Book and all Stamps applicable to all ration periods that have elapsed. Under no circumstances shall any person be issued a War Ration Book to replace one that has been lost, stolen, or destroyed until a period of not less than two months has elapsed since the date when he applied to the Board for a replacement War Ration Book.

It is our plan to carry in the Echo each week, the number of stamp that can be used during the period of time, and set out also the value of this stamp in weight.

Let us suggest, that if you have not thoroughly acquainted yourself with the method of procedure that is to be followed in the rationing of sugar, that you call at the Rationing Board Office and ask some of the members, or the Secretary of the Board, the questions about which you are in doubt, and they will be happy and pleased to give you any information that they have on hand, because we can realize in what position, some who do not understand the regulations, may be placed.

HAS ENVIABLE RECORD

BROTHER ROMUALD

The personnel of the Saint Stanislaus Musical Unit of 1942 dedicated last Sunday's Concert and the State Contest events to their devoted bandmaster, Brother Romuald, in honor of his tenth anniversary as director of the Saint Stanislaus Band. These ten years have been a period of progress and success. The band has appeared in even State Contests and has won four Superior ratings in band work and four Superior ratings in twirling.

Brother Romuald started his musical career at the age of fourteen. He studied the violin under the direction of a master graduate of Conservatory of Brussels. Having mastered this instrument, he studied piano the woodwind and brass instruments used in orchestra and band; took special courses in harmony and composition and band arranging. In 1926, he was transferred to Washington, Indiana, where he organized a boys choir of fifty voices. He continued this work for six years during which time he studied pipe organ and church music. In 1932, he came to Bay St. Louis and organized the Saint Stanislaus Band. These ten years have been a period of progress and success. The band has appeared in even State Contests and has won four Superior ratings in band work and four Superior ratings in twirling.

The Band counts 40 musicians, two drum majors and two color bearers. Due to the fluctuation of students in a boarding school, the problem of maintaining a 40-piece band, in a school with an enrollment of less than 300 students, is a difficult one. Every year, nearly 50 percent of the personnel of the band is made up of new members.

We extend to Bro. Romuald our congratulation, and sincere good wishes.

Letters of Appreciation

The Echo is in receipt of a letter from Eugene Monti expressing to us his appreciation for having received The Echo.

April 25, 1942

Dear Sir:

This is a brief note of "thanks" for your generosity in sending me "SEA COAST ECHO" every week.

I want to send my personal note of gratitude for its gestures like this, done by the people back in your home town that make you feel that they haven't forgotten you and make the bumps along the road a little more cheerful.

It is also quite thrilling to read and see where the boys I went to school with are stationed and what sort of work they are doing. I am sure all of us will do our part for our country, and I am looking forward to seeing each and everyone of them return home safely and resume our past friendships.

My personal regards to you!

Yours sincerely,
GENE MONTI

Gene has been transferred to 636 Q. M. Plat, Morris Field, Army Air Base Charlotte, N. C.

We are in receipt of a letter from George W. Creel, who is a member of the 35th Material Squadron, Orlando Air Base, Orlando, Florida, which is herewith quote in full.

"It is with the greatest pleasure that I acknowledge receipt of your last issue of 'The Sea Coast Echo.' As I take this opportunity to express my most profound appreciation of your kindness in availing me of this avenue of information concerning home activities.

We of the Armed Forces, find homesickness a permanent illness, unless frequent contact is maintained with friends and loved ones back home.

Bay St. Louis is well represented in the various branches of service, and it is my fervent prayer that in the final analysis, we may still be in there fighting and sharing in the victory which will inevitably be ours.

We salute you, folks at home, for the part you play in this great battle for freedom as is important as our. We must look to you for moral support.

Thanking you again, I am,
Sincerely yours,
GEORGE W. CREEL.

The Echo is in receipt of a letter from Pvt. Fritz Taconi, thanking us for sending him The Echo.

We are also in receipt of a letter from Horace Lee of Kiln, stating that he had received The Echo for the first time in his fourteen months of service and greatly appreciated it, that he was sure that all the boys were as anxious as he to get it, and that it was a nice contribution to the boys in service. He is a member of 141st Armored Signal Company, now stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey. He has had two promotions in the last month; to Private 1st Class and then to Technician, 5th Grade.

We are in receipt of a letter from Corporal Clyde F. Ladner, dated April 28th, from Trinidad, British West Indies, telling us that he received The Echo, dated the 10th, and that although it was late, that it was still news, and that he wanted to express his sincere thanks.

He also stated that the column of addresses and activities of the boys in service, was one thing that they look forward to each week and that it would be the means by which many old buddies could get in touch with one another.

We are also in receipt of a letter from Pvt. Wallace A. Depreo, thanking us for sending him The Echo and advising us of a change in his address.

Pvt. 1st Cl. Louis E. Evans, writes to thank us for sending him the paper, and says that he is glad to get it, and that in this way he can keep up with the news at home and know what all the people are doing; and that we do not know how good it makes a fellow feel to get this news. He is stationed at Camp Wheeler and he says that Georgia is a nice State, but that he would rather be in good "Old" Mississippi.

ORTT THEATER PRESENTS "INVISIBLE WOMAN, SUN-MONDAY

Intended to outshine the amazing tricks of its fore-runners, Universal's "The Invisible Woman" shows Sunday and Monday at Ortte Theater, with Virginia Bruce, John Barrymore, John Howard, Charlie Ruggles and Oscar Homolka in starring roles.

Produced by the same studio which first startled film audiences with "The Invisible Man" in 1933 and "The Invisible Man Returns" in 1939, the new film is the first to be in war now is fully evident.

Novel story of the picture presents Barrymore as an eccentric professor who discovers a formula for human invisibility. Miss Bruce, as a discouraged dress model, offers herself as subject for the scientist's experiments, which prove completely successful.

Thereupon Miss Bruce employs her invisibility to gain revenge on an abusive employer, to torment a young playboy and his befuddled butler with her invisible pranks, and even to round up a gangster mob in a hilarious sequence.

Howard appears as the playboy who finances the professor's experiments, and who takes an immediate dislike to the Invisible Woman because of her playful nature. He changes his mind, however, when she materializes and he finds that the Invisible Woman is actually a beautiful lady.

Charlie Ruggles appears as Howard's butler, Oscar Homolka is chief of the gangster mob and other roles are played by Edward Brophy, Donald MacBride, Margaret Hamilton, Thurston Hall, Mary Gordon, Charles Lane and Eddie Conrad.

VICTORY GARDENS

VICTORY Gardeners will not have much time to read this month if garden insects are controlled and if garden planting, care and harvest are kept up to schedule.

Plantings in May assure a summer garden. Plant seed now—Collards, corn, pole butter beans, pole snap beans, field peas, squash and tomatoes. Set plants now—Eggplants, pepper, tomato and sweet potato.

Hints on May Plantings
Tomato seed sown ten seed to a hill before May 15 will furnish excellent plants for transplanting in June. If the okra planting occupies only 1/2 row use pepper, egg plant or some long lived plant on other half. Two are three plantings of corn and beans will produce quality products over a longer period.

Care of the May garden means cultivation to control weeds and loosen crust after rain, insects and disease control and proper thinning, pruning and staking.

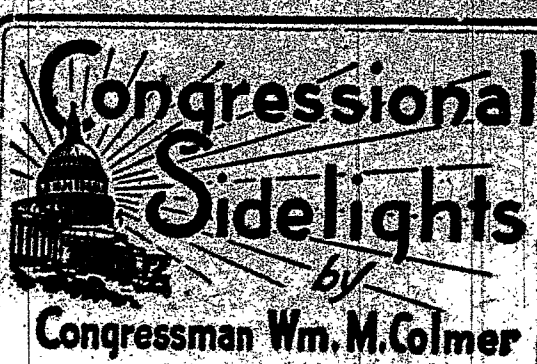

Other War Board workers reporting 100 per cent of families in their community planting year around gardens are:

D. F. Lee, Flat Top Community; S. R. Murphy, Napoleon community. Approximately 50 community leaders have reported to date with about 50 per cent of this number reporting 100 per cent of families planting year around gardens.

Give 1000 Bulls
Jersey breeders of the United States are giving away the week of August 17, 1000 purebred Jersey bulls all of which must meet selective service requirements. The receiver in each instance must be a farmer who does not own any registered Jersey and he must submit application for same through county agent.

Qualifications for donated bulls, to be accepted, are that they must have been dropped on or after Jan. 1, 1942, and prior to August 1, 1942, and they must qualify for registration under the selective registration rules which become effective January 1, 1942. This means the dam must have registry of Merit, Herd Improvement Registry, or Dairy Herd Improvement Association mature record of at least 400 pounds butterfat or the equivalent, or bull must be a Proved Bull or by a Tested Sire.

Receiver of bull will be required to furnish proof of sample provision for proper development of animal and of his being used efficiently in promoting milk production for family use or sale. Also receiver must pledge to develop and use the bull received in accordance with specifications for a planned dairy cattle breeding demonstration to be checked regularly by local county agent.

Price Ceilings Set

THE pinch and sacrifice of war may not yet have been felt by many Americans, but that none will escape the realization that employ these trick effects for comedy under the price ceiling set by the Government.

A general price ceiling order has been issued by Leon Henderson, Price Administrator, effective May 18, on the retail price of over 30,000 commodities. At the same time, he issued orders for Federal control of rents in certain defense areas, which include many Mississippi communities, effective July 1. Rents will be cut back to the level of January 1, 1941, in some instances where there have been exorbitant increases, but in most cases will be frozen as of March 1, 1942.

There are certain exceptions to the control order, such as personal and professional services, perishable goods, raw and unprocessed agricultural products, eggs, poultry, milk products and other items too numerous to mention. Anyone particularly interested in obtaining a bulletin giving full information may address a card to me here in Washington, and I shall be happy to secure and send them such information.

Effective immediately, all retailers, wholesalers, and manufacturers must preserve existing records of sales made during March for maximum price-fixing purposes.

Every retail store must publicly display the ceiling prices for the selected "cost-of-living" commodities on and after May 18. These prices must correspond to the prices marked on the articles, and they must not exceed the highest level charged during March, 1942.

All retailers and wholesalers, effective as of dates the ceiling applies, will consider himself licensed as of May 18 for retailers and May 11 for wholesalers.

A national registration of every retail and wholesale outlet will be undertaken in the near future and each establishment registered separately.

The Emergency Price Control Act imposes heavy penalties for violations of the regulations, which include a $5,000 fine or one year's imprisonment, or both, and revocation of the seller's license for 12 months. In addition, a consumer, who is required to pay a price too high, may sue for damages.

Local boards will be set up in each community to facilitate the handling of price ceiling problems. Urgent inquiries should be addressed to the nearest area office of the Office of Price Administration, which is at Atlanta.

This is purely an emergency program and will be abandoned as soon after the war is over as is available. Price ceilings are to prevent the upward spiral of food prices and the inflationary trend, which would totally wreck our economic system and bring bankruptcy to the whole country if unchecked.

Labor Legislation

For the past several months both branches of the Congress have given considerable consideration to some form of legislation curbing strikes, regulating labor unions, and limiting profits. The country has, as a whole, demanded such legislation. We have among those Members of Congress who have felt that such legislation was desirable. We have based our conclusion on the basis that others as well as the young manhood of the country, who were called upon to bare their breasts to the enemy, should make some sacrifice. And that a laborer engaged in a war industry had no more right to strike than the soldier or sailor to desert the colors; plus the fact that no man should be permitted to grow rich out of the blood, tears, and sacrifice of our young manhood. However, the Administration, headed by the President, has thought that the matter should be handled differently and has opposed all such legislation, particularly with reference to labor. This opposition has been manifest as a result of the President's own personal intervention that it is now apparent that there will be no such legislation any time soon. It is apparent that the Congress out of deference to the President, who is the Commander-in-Chief of our armed forces, will take no action any time soon.

BEERY AT HIS BEST AS TOUGH SERGT. IN "THE BUGLE SOUNDS"

Plan to Be Shown at A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday Nights

Filming scenes of army life at Fort Knox, Ky., for "The Bugle Sounds," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer drama of America's new mechanized army, to play Sunday and Monday at A. & G. Theater provides a cast and crew with the real thing.

Wallace Beery, starring as a veteran sergeant, worked with regular troops at Fort Ord, Calif., riding the tanks and jeeps. A technical crew headed by Joseph Newman, assistant director, reported to Lieutenant Colonel James Crockett, and went on the field with the 1st Armored Division, in command of Major General MacGruger, in the Louisiana war games. Another crew filmed actual army maneuvers at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Appearing with Beery are Marjorie Main, Lewis Stone, George Bancroft, Henry O'Neill and Donna Reed, and a supporting cast which includes Chill Wills, William Lundigan, Tom Dugan and Guinn Williams. S. Sylvan Simon directed and J. Walter Ruben produced with cooperation of the War Department.

Captain Arthur W. Fields, of Washington, was assigned as technical adviser to supervise all army scenes.

Beery is definitely in his own territory as a tough top sergeant with a heart of gold, in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Bugle Sounds," story of the new mechanized army.

Lewis Stone is a commanding figure as a colonel, playing the role with the excellence to which the public has become accustomed through his long career. Donna Reed has the romantic feminine lead as the bride of William Lundigan, who appears as a selective service recruit in Beery's platoon.

Convincing performances are given by George Bancroft, Henry O'Neill, Chill Wills, Tom Dugan, Guinn Williams and Jerome Cowan as the menacing saboteur.

Home Agent Notes

THE Home Agent visited in twenty-four homes last week. Most of these homes had vegetable gardens. Some were very good. One in Aaron Academy had mustard, turnips, onions, radish, green beans, and new potatoes ready for table use. The tomato and pepper plants are looking fine. Cucumber, squash, and tomato blooms were in several gardens. Everyone seems to realize the necessity of growing and canning vegetables this year.

The mayhaws and berries can be canned without sugar and be sweetened in a few minutes just before using.

There are two methods of preserving juice, cold press which makes the cleanest juice and the hot process which makes juice suitable for jelly making.

The Hot Press Method

The hot press method requires that products be washed, slightly crushed so as to furnish enough juice to avoid scorching, and placed in a kettle over the fire. They are stirred frequently until the simmering stage is reached. They should not boil but should simmer until soft. The juice is then expressed by pouring the fruit into a jelly bag and allowing it to drip if one wants a very clear product. Good practice is to squeeze the bag to extract as much juice as possible. Filtering through flannel or felt will clarify the juice before bottling or canning. The hot process extraction should be processed in the jar or bottle for 30 minutes at 180 degrees Fahrenheit in a water-bath as deep as the juice in the container.

Jars should then be sealed and stored. Storage in a dark place is essential to the preservation of color in juices. Sugar darkens the color and dulls the sparkle of most juices. Never use more than 1 cup of sugar to 1 gallon of juice to be canned. The juice keeps as well without sugar as with it, and the desired quantity of sugar can be added just before using.

THIS IS THE STORY OF CARBOLOY

How a Most Strategic Material of the War—Invented in Germany—Was Made Available to the United Nations

More Precious Than Diamonds in War Production... Carboloy is an American trademark for cemented tungsten-carbide, an alloy second only to diamonds in hardness, more precious than diamonds as a vital material in America's war program. It is used for the tips of cutting tools, and for wear-resistant dies. Carboloy is used in small quantities; it is difficult to make and difficult to use—but it has never been scarce in modern times. There is no scarcity now.

Invented in Germany—Krupp Protected by U. S. Patents... Cemented carbide was invented in Germany—it belonged to Krupp of Germany, and this made all the rest of the world Krupp's customer. In this country, Krupp was protected by patent grants from the United States.

General Electric Creates Independent Production... The General Electric Company two years before this had begun research on tungsten-carbide and foresaw its importance in industrial production. For immediate use in its own plants and for easier availability to others, General Electric undertook the long and arduous negotiations for the American rights. Limited rights were obtained in 1928, with Krupp continuing to export the material to its United States customers—a business which languished, however, as General Electric painstakingly developed its own Carboloy technique. This paved the way for General Electric to make the United States entirely independent of Germany for its cemented tungsten-carbide supply as early as 1936.

American Tool Costs Half That of German... From the start, two totally different businesses were involved. Krupp originally exported cemented carbides in chunks—and was unsuccessful. General Electric—and its subsidiary, Carboloy Co., Inc.—found it necessary to develop a complete engineering and manufacturing service, making various types of Carboloy equipped tools, training men in their use, and offering to its customers a specialized and successful production technique. For purposes of fair comparison, a typical German cemented carbide tool in 1928 cost $22.26 in the United States, while a comparable American Carboloy tool cost $11.11.

Loss to General Electric for Many Years—Art Taught to Industry... In times of peace—and 1928 was such a time—the measure of success of industrial adventure is to be found in profit to the adventurer. By such a measure, Carboloy could not be called successful. Initial expenses were great. For a time the Company lost at the rate of $1000 a day, and once had an operating deficit of more than a million dollars. One of the major contributing reasons was the continuing high cost of development, standardization, and training. In 1936-37 alone, training courses were given to 10,000 men in industry. Moreover, six major price reductions were made in the face of operating losses, until the standard tool blank had been reduced in price 90 per cent.

Faith and Perseverance... Depression was still another reason—labor-saving tools could not be sold to industry or labor at any price. But General Electric, with determination that now seems providential, kept on—increasing its capacity, granting new licenses, condoning instances of unlicensed production, staying ahead of its market.

"Over the entire period of its existence up to January 1st, 1942 the total net profit of the Carboloy Company was 2.5 per cent of sales."

Production Multiplied Forty-five Times in Four Years... Cemented tungsten-carbide could easily have been a source of weakness here, as it was in England, had it not been for General Electric's policy of continued expansion. In 1939, the production of the Carboloy Company was less than 20,000 lbs.; in 1940, it was 55,000 lbs.; in 1941, it was 163,000—and in December came Pearl Harbor. Now, in 1942, the Company's production is going at a rate that is 45 times that of only four years ago.

Britain Dependent upon U. S.... By contrast, British companies, which had been content to continue as customers of Krupp, found themselves cut off from the vital material when Poland was invaded. But the General Electric Company was able to supply substantial quantities to British industry immediately and since then has continuously filled British orders. It has, in like manner, filled Canada's requirements since 1936. It is currently supplying Canada, Russia, and other United Nations. All this in addition to supplying the greatly expanded needs of American industry.

An Inspirational Story of American Industry... Thus, the story of Carboloy does not end in "too little and too late." Like many previously untold stories of American industry, it continues, a sturdy and inspiring example of public service born of private enterprise, and characterized by hard work, ingenuity, investment, research, risk, and courage—a familiar pattern on this side of the Atlantic. General Electric Company, Schenectady, New York.

STANISLAUS NEWS NOTES

CONGRATULATIONS to our Band for the splendid showing they made at the State Contest last Friday. Brother Romuald, the band director, tells us that competition is getting harder and harder every year. This year twelve bands tied with each other for honors in the second division of the Class C bands. The Stanislaus band took first place in the twirling contest. This was the third time that George won the medal for twirling, in Mississippi. Our boys made a "big hit" in their flashy uniforms. The inspectors had nothing but praises for the neatness of appearance and the cleanliness of the uniforms and horns. So again, the Stanislaus band brought back a plaque for the school and a medal for each of the band members.

A holiday was given to the Senior and Junior classes last Saturday for averaging over $2.00 a boy in the recent Mission Drive. The juniors led the school with an average of $3.35 a boy and the seniors reached an average of $2.05 a boy. A similar holiday was given to the Fourth and Fifth Grades for leading the drive in the Grammar Grades. Sophomore A and Freshman B, had a holiday Wednesday for having $2.00 and over per boy.

The Juniors are in full swing transforming the gym into an exclusive setting which will be revealed to the Seniors on the night of the Prom, which will be on May 16. Though it was necessary to reduce the expenses for war purposes the prom will not suffer. On the contrary, the few changes made will be more applicable to the theme than previous plans.

WEDDING OF MISS BOWERS AND MR. FRANK E. REESON, JR.

Interesting to the many friends of the Beeson and Bowers families is the news of the marriage of Miss Katherine Mary Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ball Bowers, to Mr. Frank Edward Reeson, Jr., which was celebrated on last Saturday at St. Andrews Episcopal Church at 11 o'clock in the morning with the Rev. Girault M. Jones performing the ceremony.

Both of these young people resided here with their families and attended school for a number of years.

An important meeting of all workers on Defense Bonds was held in the Civilian Defense Office Monday, May 4th, at 2 P. M. for the purpose of making plans for the drive that will begin on Tuesday, May 19th.

Mr. Commagere, president, reported that he had received full instructions from Washington to get busy immediately. He also stated since Hancock County's quota has been increased nearly 50 per cent it means everyone must do his part. He appointed the following committee to assist him in this drive. Each member of the committee will make a house to house canvass in the section designated for the purpose of asking each family to pledge so much and also to give any information desired along this line. They will not sell the bonds.

The committee is composed of Mrs. Celine Ashcraft, Dunbar to Felicity; Miss Lola Anderson, Hotel Reed, Spanish Trail on Ulman; Foster Commagere Spanish Trail from Ulman to Short Cut; Perry Drake, Beach from Echo to Main Street; Mrs. Mauffray and Guy Lyman, Main Street to Spanish Trail, Beach from Main to Merchants Bank.

Blood Bank Postponed
Dr. Davenport has notified this office that it will be the latter part of the month before he can get back. Blood donors will be notified when to report.

Enrollment at Kiln
The Civilian Defense Center at Kiln is enrolling volunteers of that community this week at the same time they sign up for their sugar cards. This should insure almost 100 per cent enrollment.

A Vital Need
Cars are vitally needed to take instructors to the county centers to train those who have volunteered. Who will offer to take an instructor to Kiln or Sellers on Monday or Wednesday nights? These courses run for 5 weeks.

And if possible we would like to secure enough cars so as not to ask the same car to make the trip more than twice during a course.

In a recent bulletin issued by the Washington Office of Civilian Defense it was stated that the Fourth Region is located, has registered a larger number of volunteers than any other region in the country; but the number of volunteers who have been assigned for training in the Fourth Region particularly Mississippi is relatively small. Mr. Fred C. Morgan, State Director says, "I personally believe that Mississippi is doing a much better job than the records show but is not receiving full credit for its activities because all counties in the state are not reporting."

We of this office are inclined to think Hancock County is not included in the above. Here are a few items of interest taken from the report sent to State Office as of May 1st.

Seven county centers (1) Waveland (2) Logtown (3) Clermont Harbor-Lakeshore (4) Kiln (5) Aaron Academy (6) Dedeaux (7) Bay St. Louis (colored).

WITH THE FISHERMEN AND OTHER SPORTS

By KANTCHU KETCHEM

WHAT'S more beautiful than one of Hancock County's bayous lined with heavy foliage and stately trees with their branches overhanging the calm water, not too calm, but with just enough ripples to make such a stream the fishermen's paradise.

To complete the picture a sturdy canoe or boat handled by a natural-born "paddler" glides over the water to take the anxious angler to that gap where he knows there's a "big one" waiting for that fly bait to drop within his reach. Yep, there's that expected strike and the fight is on—ending with the prized "beauty" put in the fish well.

That's the thrill our local fishermen have been experiencing since the opening of the game fishing season on May 1st, after a two month's lay-off.

And as proof of the puddin' below is reproduced a picture of George Bradbury and the string he caught last Friday in Bayou LaCroix.

"George doesn't claim to be an expert but proved that he can handle them like a champion. He said that he had the time of his life."

Mr. Bradbury is an auditor for the Coast Electric Power Association and originally from Arlington, Va.

Our friend W. Scott Morrill a veteran fly fisherman, reports several nice catches lately among them being 13 trout and 13 large brim which he caught last Saturday.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Ferrell and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bradbury had a fine fishing trip up Jordan River Saturday afternoon. They caught their share. Mrs. Ferrell landed a 2 1/2 pound black bass.

Bob Genin, L. E. Kennedy, Albert Hitt, Fritz Peranich, Hy Osolnach, Laurent Kergosien all report that fish are plentiful and that they are making fine catches with fly-rod and also casting.

The inland waters around Bay St. Louis are beautiful. Bayou LaCroix, Jordan River, The Cut-Off, Bayou La Eugene and Rotten Bayou are at their best right now. Pearl River above Waist House the water is still not so good but getting better day by day.

Soft crabbing and floundering at the present time is not up to par for this time of the year. Although several catches have been reported. More on this later.

Several catches of "Frogs" have been made and Arthur Miller has been getting his share. August Rauxet last week caught 15 big ones.

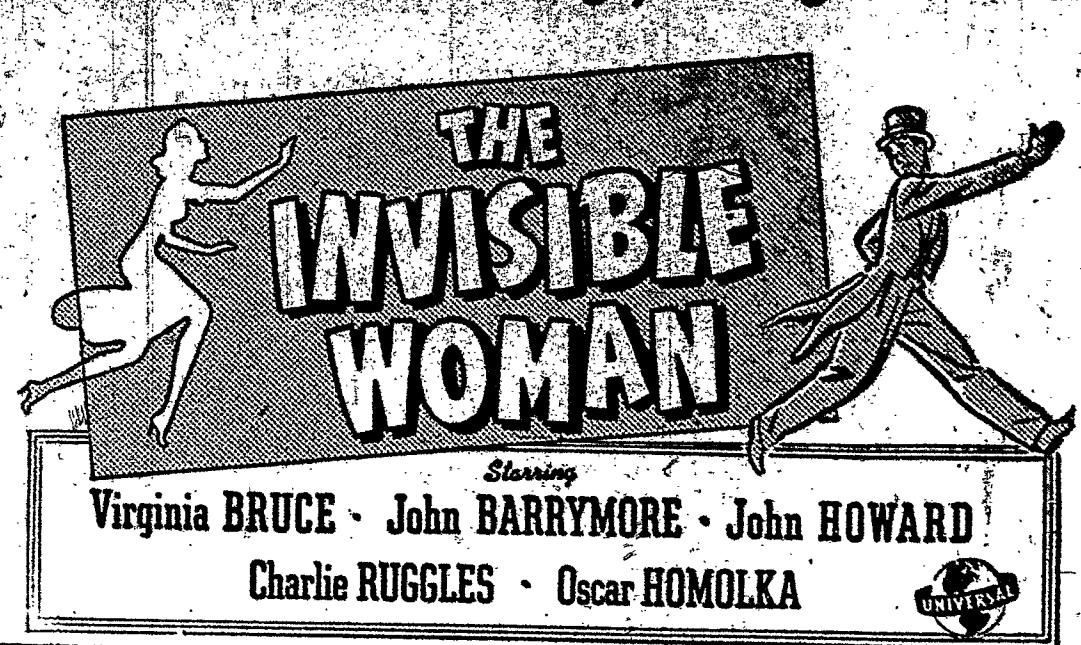

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McConnell of New Orleans and Waveland and son, are ardent fishermen. They are seen over the week ends at different places and always have their quota.

Although most of our local sportsmen have been bitten by the fishing bug, the usual devotees of golf are still finding time to spend a day of the week-end at their favorite hobby. Among those out Sunday at Pine Hills the beautiful golf course on the shores of Bay St. Louis were C. C. McDonald, Bob Genin, Oscar Fragg, Congressman Paul Maloney, S. H. Dedeaux, Fred Wright, Oscar Fragg, Jr., O. J. Dedeaux, J. C. Rich and others.

A group of fox hunters were out last Sunday for a chase and were very successful.

Fishing licenses are necessary. A resident license costs $1.25. A non-resident license $2.25. This applies to those using artificial bait. Have yours before going out. Licenses can be purchased from Randolph Bourgeois, local game warden.

Any information regarding fishing and other sports will be greatly appreciated for this column. Send it in. Thanks!

Mr. John D. Horlock has received from the United States Employment service office at Gulfport a letter directing him to report at the court house in Bay St. Louis, Monday for an interview with their representative. The letter states that his selective service questionnaire shows that he has an occupational skill which is vital to the defense program. Many such letters will probably be received in the near future by men who have families and who are not subject to military duty at the present time.
